

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 19, 2017

Air Canada Flight Pass Expiry Dates and Fees Class Action

Champlain Avocats (Montréal, Québec) and Evolink Law Group (Vancouver, British Columbia) filed a proposed class action in the Superior Court of Quebec. This proposed class action was filed against Air Canada on behalf of all consumers anywhere in the world who purchased a Flight Pass with a fixed number of flight credits since August 16, 2013.

The lawsuit claims damages, interest, and punitive damages from Air Canada for imposing expiry dates and/or fees on the Flight Passes in breach of Quebec's Consumer Protection Act

For more information, please visit <http://evolinklaw.com/air-canada-expiry-classaction/>

Putative Class Counsel for this Class Action are:

- Me. Jérémie John Martin of Champlain Avocats (info@champlainavocats.com)
- Me. Sébastien Paquette of Champlain Avocats (info@champlainavocats.com)
- Mr. Simon Lin of Evolink Law Group (info@evolinklaw.com)