

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 9, 2017

National Class Action Certified against Air Canada for Alleged Flight Pass Mispricing Incident

The Superior Court of Québec has approved a publication plan to notify class members of a national class action commenced against Air Canada relating to the Flight Pass mispricing incident that occurred on the Air Canada website around August 26, 2015. Class members who wish to be excluded from this class action must opt-out by September 8, 2017.

The class action lawsuit will seek to claim compensatory damages and/or punitive damages from Air Canada for the mispricing incident.

For more information or to view copies of the court-approved notices, please visit <http://evolinklaw.com/air-canada-flight-pass-national-class-action/>.

The following lawyers are class counsel for this class action lawsuit:

- Simon Lin of Evolink Law Group (Vancouver, BC) – simonlin@evolinklaw.com
- Jérémie John Martin of Champlain Avocats (Montréal, Québec) - jmartin@champlainavocats.com
- Sébastien Paquette of Champlain Avocats (Montréal, Québec) - spaquette@champlainavocats.com